Dear Parents/Carers,

Police have advised schools in Slough of several incidents that have taken place nearby to Wexham and Beechwood secondary schools this week. In each case a female student was approached by a man in a dark coloured car. The description given has been of a white man aged between 50 and 30, with a tattoo on his hand/arm, possibly of a rose.

The police are investigating further, and advised if anyone knows the suspect that they contact the police. The police have also advised that they do not wish to cause unnecessary alarm, but ask that all parents remain vigilant, and that pupils who walk to and from school by themselves have been given reminders about what to do if they feel worried or see something that causes concern.

Staff will remind pupils about strategies for keeping safe today. If you see anything suspicious please report it to the police on 101, or, if an individual is in immediate danger, call 999.

Yours Faithfully

Fiona Maynard
